Memory, Aging & Expressive Arts:

Fostering meaningful art experiences for persons with dementia

Anne Mondro

University of Michigan Penny W. Stamps School of Art & Design, Ann Arbor, MI USA
Anne Mondro
Memory, Aging & Expressive Arts
Artwork created by U-M Geriatric Center
Mild Memory Loss Program Club Member
Artwork created by U-M Geriatric Center
Mild Memory Loss Program Club Member
Memory, Aging & Expressive Arts Faculty

Nancy Barbas, MD, MSW, Clinical Associate Professor, U-M Medical School and U-M Health System Department of Neurology

Anne Mondro, MFA, Associate Professor, U-M Stamps School of Art & Design

Elaine Reed, BFA, U-M Health System Gifts of Art Artist in Residence

Laura Rice-Oeschger, LMSW, Michigan Alzheimer’s Disease Center Wellness Coordinator

J. Scott Roberts, PhD, Associate Professor, Department of Health, Behavior & Health Education, U-M School of Public Health

Beth Spencer, MA, LMSW, Project Manager, Geriatric Social Work Hartford Center of Excellence, U-M School of Social Work
Course Objectives

• Gain a holistic perspective of aging and memory loss

• Explore the benefits of creativity

• Apply expressive arts to coursework to build community engagement skills

Artwork created by U-M Geriatric Center Mild Memory Loss Program Club Member
Anne Mondro
ammondro@umich.edu
www.retainingidentity.com

Artwork created by U-M Geriatric Center
Mild Memory Loss Program Club Member